

Campus Safety Resources

STAY INFORMED BruinAlert

Receive emergency notifications and important campus safety information.

SIGN UP TODAY

Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to review and update their notification preferences.

OCCS Safety Training Program

Free training available for UCLA departments, units, student organizations, and campus groups.

TRAINING TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Active Assailant Preparedness
- Emergency Preparedness
- General Safety Awareness

LEARN MORE & SIGN UP

Need Assistance?

UCLA POLICE DEPARTMENT

EMERGENCY:

9-1-1

NON-EMERGENCY:

(310) 825-1491

CSO EVENING ESCORT:

(310) 794-WALK
(9255)

USE WHEN:

- You notice suspicious activity
- Have safety concerns
- Need a walking escort
- Require Police assistance

Bruins Safe Online (BSO)

UCLA's official public safety and emergency information website. A central hub for accurate, real-time information during campus crises, lockdowns, or natural disasters.

bsu.ucla.edu

Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT)

Concerned about someone's behavior, well-being, or safety at work? BIT helps assess concerns and connect people to support before a crisis occurs.

(310) 794-0422